Ayhan Demircan

President of IOGO - 1.District İstanbul Opticians Chamber

I graduated from Üsküdar University Opticianry in 2018 and Anadolu University Retail Sales and Store Management in 2020. I also continue to study Political Science and Public Administration at Anadolu University. I started my professional business life in 1986. I began optical the sector in 1996 as a sales representative at Sirkeci Turkuaz Optik. Since 2009, I have been practicing my profession in Kule Optik company of that also as a founder partner. In addition, I have been working as an Optician Expert Witness affiliated to the Ministry of Justice since 2018, as a lecturer at Üsküdar University since 2019, and as the Chairman of the Board of Directors in Istanbul Optician-Optician Chamber since 2020. In addition to organising trainings for opticians and optician candidates in the education and experience workshop, which I am one of the founders, I took part as a speaker in many trainings held on different platforms. I participated as a speaker in seminars and conferences held about our profession in universities with opticianry programmes in our country. I took part in many domestic and international social responsibility projects that I think will raise awareness about eye and vision health.
